

I't seems to be that because of the control of a handful of companies owning the radio stations in the country that the quality of programing has become inferior. It is very slanted and it has become very consevative. There is no moderate programing were people are able to communicate without it being slanted to the far right. Hopefully we can have a more far and balanced radio network in the future. Thank you for your time.